Together We Grow* Ranks at an All-Time High in Parent Satisfaction

SAN DIEGO - MARKETING SOLUTIONS by CESSON, a San Diego-based marketing agency, conducted a comprehensive survey on parent satisfaction with Together We Grow. The results clearly show how Together We Grow has transformed the lives of many children.

The survey was sent to all parents whose children currently attend Together We Grow, either in San Diego or Oceanside. It was conducted by mail, with answers collected anonymously by mail or fax. Follow-up phone calls were made when parents identified themselves. The survey resulted in an almost 40% response rate, very high by industry standards.

Parents like Andrea Krause praised the positive effect of Together We Grow on family life. "My son is difficult behavior-wise along with his medical problems. At one time, it was suggested to me he lives in a group home and thanks to Together We Grow, that won't need to happen. Together We Grow is a real blessing to me, and to my son."

In the survey, 90% of the parents rated Together We Grow as "Outstanding" in all aspects of their service, while 98% were either "Very Satisfied" or "Satisfied" with the teaching staff. The survey also indicated that the new facility in San Diego has created an enhanced experience for families, with 85% of the respondents giving the two facilities a perfect rating.
